SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The first day of the A-Swings was pretty eventful. Officers were bust for a majority of the day, but were able to handle all calls for service in a quick fashion. Towards the end of the night officers responded to a 911 call that originated from a residence on the southern part of town. As officers were responding, the resident called TPD and wanted to cancel responding officers. The address has a history of domestic violence, so officers continued. When they arrived, they quickly discovered that the female at the residence has a domestic violence restraining order against the father of her children. When he saw officers, he ran into the backyard, into a wooden shed, and then concealed himself in the upper rafters. The shed was surrounded and he was ordered to come out, but he refused. At a few points in time he would throw items out the door and towards the officers, demanding that we leave. We had one of our canines respond, and when he heard the canine barking, he quickly came out and was arrested.

Tonight, is our first night of our workweek. Officers were very busy tonight with calls for service leaving little time to be proactive. Officers responded to residence where a male and female were in an altercation and the female caused injury to the male. The female was placed under arrest and booked into Jail . An Officer contacted a male in a park after park hours. The male was intoxicated and refused to cooperate. The male resisted arrest and once placed under arrest he had to be placed in a WRAP for his safety. The male was transported to Jail for multiple charges.
